

THE RED AND THE GRAY

1. Come, now, comrades, as we gather
    Within this college hall.
Let us sing our hearty praises
    To our Banner best of all.
We salute it with devotion,
    We'll follow all the way;
We'll fight, fight, fight forever
    For our flag, the Red and Gray.
2. As the years of life pass o'er us,
    And onward as we go.
Should our dearest hopes betray us,
    False fortune send us foe,
Still we'll banish care and sadness,
    And ever will we say,
We'll fight, fight, fight, forever
    For our flag, the Red and Gray.
